FELLOW CITIERS. -Hving been induced to present myself before you to the attitude of a candidate for the office of Treasurer of the State, I deem it necessary to make known my political creed. I have ever expoused the cause of Democracy, behaving it to be the most conducive to to the happiness of a free and enlightened people, and to the perpetuation of that Government which has so long attracted the veneration and applause of the surrounding nations of the earth. No personal consideration apart from that of a fellow-citizen, has called me to the field. Believing the office (which our distinguished friend and servant. Mr. Williams, was compelled by the fatal stroke of death to abandon,) to be one of the highest consideration, and that its duties should be discharged with prompt impartiality, I have been persuaded to take the field. Should you think proper Fellow citizens, to elect me, I can only promise an untiring zeal and faithful discharge of those duties which will necessarily dervola Your Fellow Citizen,

ROWLIND JEFFERSON EDMONDS.

PROSPECTUS OF "The Old Soldier."

THE unparalleled exertions of the Federal par-ty to again get possession of the reins of Government, call for counter efforts on the part of those who wish the Government administered on the principles of JEFPERSON and JACKSON, Numerous papers have sprung up in different sections of the Linion, which now spread abroad the claims of W. H. Harrison, the Federal candidate for the Presidency. The State is being flooded with ear anations from the Federal press. Inflammatory appeals are made to the public, and all the ena gies which the bankers of Mosrosippi have left, are now devoted to the object of REVIVING THE PLUN-DERING SYSTEM, which JUSTICE, PUBLIC OPINION, and the laws of the land have trampled

Seeing these things, and believing too, that the People of Mississippi are willing to receive the TRUTH, and to act upon PRINCIPLE, rather than senseless noise and munmery, such as the HARD CIDER and LOG CABIN humbug, which the Fe leralists have adopted, the undersigned has determined to publish at Jackson, until after the election, a sheet to be called the OLD SOLDIER. which will be devoted to the republican cause support MARTIN VAN BUREN, and RICH-ARD M. JOHNSON, as the democratic candidates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, and fearlessly expose the pretensions of Federal Whig-gery, and its leaders and abettors in the South. He therefore calls upon all true Republicans to lend him a helping hand.

TERMS. The "OLD SOLDIER," will be pub ished on paper of good size at the "Mississippian" OFFICE, until after the election; 13 numbers at the moderate sum of $1; six copies for $5; twelve copies for $10; and twenty copies for $15; and so in

The first number of the "OLD SOLDIER" will appear about the 1st of August.

Its object will be, in plain tyle, to communicate useful information to the cultivator, whether of the vine or the flower, of vegetaoles or plants, of froits, grapes or trees, as the mulberry, and all kinds of orchard trees, with the best manner of planting them; furnishing suitable hints for the improvement of the various soits, breeds of cattle, horses, mules, and other stock, with the treatment of the diseases to which they are hole, and he management of bees and aik worms. The editor will endeavor to illustrate the important principles upon which the art and science of agriculture is founded, and to introduce an economical system of the labors, in the garden or vineyard, adapted to the seasons, climate and latitude in which we reside, and which in most respects, differ greaty from the Middle, Northern and Eastern States, Of more than one million of Planters and Horteculturists in the Sourthern States, scarcely two out of a thousand have an opportunity of consuling any agricultural works, and are wholly guided by easual observations upon the ways of their neighbors and ancestors; for they possess no means of learning the almost daily improvements that are timking in their own particular branch of culture; neither can they become acquainted with the improved varieties in trees, fruits, vines, flowers, grain and plants, which are continually introduced to our notice from every portion of the habitable globe, nor with the various improvements and new invenions in the implements of tillage. This publicaion shall contain a full account of all these that are ikely to benefit our part of the country, and increase intelligence, virtue, happiness and prosperity at every hearth in the Southern States. It shall be free from all sectarian or political views, wholly governed by Southern feelings and principles; our endeavor will be to render it serviceable to the young and the aged-to "Heaven's last best gift to man," even in her teens, and to the sturdy which from experience in our section of the Umon may have been found most congenial to commit their seeds to the soil-to prune their vines and trees-to transplant their tender shoots and flowers, to engraft, innoculate or bud their shrubs and trees, and toru the "muden's blush" into the charming moss" or " monthly rose," with the best manner of harvesting and preserving their crops and pro-

To the Public.

THE rights of Editors and publishers of papers bave been too long neglected. Justice will never be done unless they themselves assert their rights & enforce the most rigid rules, which in the end w be found alike at etacy to the public and beneficial to those engaged in the press. Publishers of papers have been so long imposed upon by the comm at large, that they are considered to some extent a degraded class of beings, when in fact there is no situation in life so honorable, deserving of so high consideration, productive of so much good or a class which exerts so powerful an influence. It is known to be proverbial for the debtors to newspaper pub ishers to consider their demands as the last to be paid-debts to which there is attached no moral of ection, and which they can refuse to pay with just tice and honor: hence it is inembuent upon the conductors of the press to asser their own rights, and resolve, severally and jointly, to bring all patrons of newspapers under the same obligations that attach to other contracts, or always remain in poverty and in the field, meadow or cocoonery, that may be best | want, with thousands due them from the most solwent men in the country.

We call upon all editors and publishers of papers who approve of the following rules to endors them by their signatures-place them at the head of their papers, and strictly adhere to them, 1. No subscription received without payment in Ctv. Miss,

2. No subscription received for less than six
